Selected Litigation Accomplishments and Published Decisions

Fednav, Ltd. v. Chester, 547 F.3d 607 (6th Cir. 2008) – successfully represented amici bipartisan group of state lawmakers in a Constitutional challenge to a state law intended to prevent biological pollution in the Great Lakes (also successfully represented same clients in district court, 505 F.Supp.2d 381 (E.D.Mich. 2007))

Glass v. Goeckel, 703 N.W.2d 58 (Mich. 2005) – successfully represented amici conservation organizations in nationally-recognized decision holding that the Great Lakes shorelines and beaches are protected by the public trust doctrine and open to recreational access

Michigan Citizens for Water Conservation v. Nestlé Waters North America Inc., 709 N.W.2d 174 (Mich.App. 2005) – successfully represented amici conservation organizations in precedent-setting decision unifying legal rules and protections between groundwater and surface water users

Mid States Coalition for Progress v. Surface Transp. Bd., 345 F.3d 520 (8th Cir. 2003) – successfully represented environmental organization in NEPA challenge to proposed coal train based on expected increases in national carbon dioxide (CO²) emissions

Minnesota Center for Environmental Advocacy v. Big Stone County Bd. of Com'rs, 638 N.W.2d 198 (Minn. Ct. App. 2002) – successfully represented environmental organizations in challenge to drainage practices, setting new precedent for applicability of environmental review and wetland protection laws to agricultural drainage activities

Associated Contract Loggers, Inc. v. U.S. Forest Service, 84 F.Supp.2d 1029 (D.Minn. 2000) – successfully defended environmental organization in SLAPP suit alleging interference with logging contracts and alleged establishment of religion of “deep ecology” in the United States Forest Service practices
