Anthony Sclafani
anthony.sclafani@wayne.edu

EDUCATION

Wayne State University   Anticipated Completion May 23
     PhD Candidate, Political Science (ABD)

Eisenhower School for National Resource Strategy   2016
     Master of Science, National Resource Strategy

University of Michigan, Dearborn   2015
     Master of Public Policy

University of Michigan, Rackham Graduate School   2015
     Master of Public Administration

Catholic University of America   2008
     Master of Arts, English Literature

United States Naval Academy   1998
     Bachelor of Science, General Science

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2009 - present: Department of the Army Civilian (current GS-15)

• Current Position: Product Lead (Acquisition), PD Main Battle Tank Systems – Warren, MI . Directs the efforts of sixteen International Program Managers, Logisticians, Engineers, Program and Procurement Analysts, and both government and contractor support personnel in the provision of technical assistance to ensure successful management of Commonwealth of Australia Heavy Armoured Capability Systems through development, acquisition, production, fielding, test, sustainment, modification, retrofit, rebuild, and disposal.

1998 – 2009: Naval Flight Officer, United States Navy

• Assignments included: Disclosure Policy Analyst, Navy International Programs Office; Current Operations Officer, Task Force 57; Naval Flight Officer, Patrol Squadron Ten

AWARDS & HONORS

Kennedy School of Government Senior Executive Fellowship	2021
Sarasohn Dissertation Fellowship, Wayne State University	2020 – 2021
Distinguished Graduate, Eisenhower School for National Resource Strategy	2016
MG Theodore Antonelli Award, Eisenhower School (Co-Recipient)	2016
Honor Scholar, Public Policy, University of Michigan, Dearborn	2015
U.S. Army Senior Enterprise Talent Management Selection	2015

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Department of Defense International Affairs Tier III	2018
Department of Defense Acquisition Program Management Level III	2015
Department of Defense Acquisition Life Cycle Logistics Level III	2013